

Upgrades

Words and music by Julia H. West

We are the Tok'ra
Children of Egeria
Striven for millennia
To defeat the System Lords.
They are the Tau'ri
Upstarts in the galaxy
Wander around recklessly
And kill the System Lords.

We found some armbands
That make warriors better
But we couldn't use them;
Our symbiotes disagree.
Give them to the Tau'ri--
They love technology!
They'll use it heedlessly
Against the System Lords.

Now they are stronger,
Faster and smarter;
But awfully impulsive
And ready for a fight.
We've got a mission
To blow up a battleship
Perfect for the Tau'ri,
Who hate the System Lords.

Whoosh! Through the Stargate,
On toward the battleship.
Jaffa go flying;
Tau'ri hurry to their goal.
Plant their explosives
Head back through the force shields.
But then the armbands fall off--
Here come the System Lords!

Based on the Stargate SG-1 episode "Upgrades."
